With support from the Senior Manager of Advocacy and Communications, the coordinator is expected to prepare and review policy statements or briefs, research, and project designs, as well as engage with relevant stakeholders both at the national and local levels; primarily to influence policy change that can contribute to improving the well-being of children, amplifying their voices, and increasing their participation.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

Strategy development and implementation of humanitarian and policy advocacy

- Co-lead the development and implementation of WV South Sudan's national advocacy strategy and plans
- Coordinate and collaborate with different functional, technical, and zonal teams in ensuring WV South Sudan's advocacy strategic priorities are integrated and reflected in all existing programs and those that are in the pipeline
- Develop policy positions in support of ending child hunger malnutrition, and violence against children, specific to South Sudan, and contribute to the broader WVI campaign and global humanitarian efforts and provide leadership to research, advocacy, and policy briefs.

Campaigns, national and global moments: Social mobilization, staff engagement, and documentation

- Lead the coordination and integration of the campaign agenda, particularly the ENOUGH Campaign and ending violence against children, across WV South Sudan's technical programs and operational areas
- Coordinate, advise, and guide project teams in different zonal offices on campaign activities at national and local levels
- Closely monitor and track the progress of the campaign outputs, outcomes, and impact at the national and local level
- Document the campaigns and global moment participation key milestones and lessons learned.

Technical support for development and learning, contributing to resource mobilization, increased advocacy, and campaign-related programs

- Participate in resource mobilization through proposal writing to ensure integration of campaign and policy change agenda in different funding opportunities
- Support the development of fundable concept notes and design of new projects with a focus on ENOUGH campaign and other campaigns and advocacy initiatives
- Support the development of sectoral/programmatic capacity statements

- Work with programs to increase awareness and understanding of issues of poverty and injustice, and advocate publicly on agreed issues to build World Vision's credible voice among the public and decision-makers
- Map out successful project designs with campaign and policy advocacy initiatives and keep track of their implementation
- Lead the development of advocacy and campaign training packages and information, education, and communication (IEC) materials
- Support sector-related research, case studies, and learnings, ensuring alignment with World Vision's positions, and advocacy and campaign agenda

Partnership building, networking, and collaborations contribute to enhanced child well-being, child voice, and child participation

- Advocate and influence partnerships and/or coalitions towards the adoption and /or support for the campaign and policy change agenda at the national and local level
- Coordinate implementation of partnership and/or coalition activities relating to the advocacy and campaign agenda at the national level
- Support functionality of established child participation structures including the children's parliament/council
- Coordinate activities involving the participation of children in the different advocacy engagements at the national level
- Initiate and maintain a database of child advocates that can support advocacy engagements at different levels including international.

Qualifications/Education/Knowledge/Technical Skills and Experience.

- University degree in development discipline. Postgraduate training in a related discipline (international relations, humanitarian protection, human rights, social work) will be an added advantage.
- Humanitarian policy and advocacy expertise, with the ability to represent INGO across national and international spaces
- Project planning and proposal writing certification, or comparable professional experience with proven results
- Team management, capacity building, and mentorship
- Good understanding of World Vision, its programs, and policies
- Excellent writing and documentation skills

- Strong interpersonal, collaboration, networking, and communications skills
- At least 3 years of experience coordinating campaigns and advocacy-related interventions at local and national levels.
- Experience in partnership-building and influencing different stakeholders, and coordination with peer agencies preferred
- Experience in building networks and coalitions, preferred.
- Ability to work in a hardship posting under stressful circumstances and across diverse timezones
